- Create and implement engaging hands-on activities, experiments, and demonstrations to enhance student learning
- Provide individualized instruction and support to students with behavioral challenges
- Assess student progress and provide constructive feedback on assignments and tests
- Collaborate with other teachers and staff to develop interdisciplinary projects and activities
- Utilize technology and other educational resources to enhance student learning
- Maintain accurate and up-to-date records of student attendance, grades, and behavior

Requirements

- Bachelor's degree in Science Education or related field
- Possess an NJDOE CE, CEAS, Provisional or Standard Teacher of Science certificate in the state of New Jersey /
- Experience working with students with behavioral challenges is highly preferred
- Self-directed, collaborative, and able to develop positive working relationships with staff, students, caregivers, and other education agencies.
- Strong knowledge of science concepts and principles across various grade levels
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills
- Ability to differentiate instruction to meet the diverse learning needs of students
- Strong organizational and time management skills

- Passion for working with students and helping them achieve their academic goals

About Us:

Pineland Learning Center is a NJDOE-approved private school serving children with behavioral and learning disabilities in grades K-12+ since 1980. We seek to educate and empower students in a structured, safe, and supportive environment through a cooperative partnership with caregivers, sending school districts, and the community.

At Pineland Learning Center, we believe:

- In fostering a culture of collaboration, trust, and shared responsibility.
- In knowing and understanding our students' individual strengths and needs.
- That teaching to the whole child is critical for success.
- In being flexible by adapting to changing needs.
